The BOSTON TEA PARTY

December 16, 1773

TAKE THAT,
KING GEORGE!
NO TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION!

WHAT? I LIKE
HONEY AND LEMON
IN MY TEA!

SCOOTER'S QUICK QUIZ

1. What was the Stamp Act? What were the Townshend Acts?
2. What was the name of the group of citizens who led the Boston Tea Party?
3. Why were the colonists upset about the Tea Act?
4. To fight the taxes placed upon them, the colonists used an action called a "boycott." Look up this word. Can you find other historic boycotts?
5. The colonists were known to shout the phrase "No taxation without representation!" They didn't like being asked to pay more and more in taxes when they didn't have a representative in the British government. Why do you think this was so important to them? Who represents your views in the U.S. government?
